Faye Heather Anderson is a UK-born, Germany-based choreographer known for her dynamic movement direction across theater, TV, live events, and commercial productions. With dual citizenship (UK & Germany) and a background in both classical and commercial training, Faye brings an international and highly versatile approach to every project. She trained at the Northern Ballet School in Manchester and the Millennium Dance Complex in Los Angeles, developing a unique style that blends precision, performance, and strong musicality. Faye has choreographed productions across Europe, South Africa, Dubai, and China, and is known for delivering high-impact, story-driven choreography for both large-scale stages and screen formats.
